

I Sing a Song of the Saints of God

1. I sing a song of the saints of God, _____
 2. They loved their Lord so dear, so dear, and _____
 3. They lived not on - ly in a - ges past; there are pa - tient and brave and true, who_ toiled and_ fought and_ his love_ made them strong; and they fol - lowed the right for_ hun - dreds of thou - sands still. The_ world is_ bright with the lived and died for the Lord they_ loved and knew. And_ Je - sus' sake the_ whole of their good lives long. And_ joy - ous saints who_ love to do Je - sus' will. You can shep - herd ess on the green; they were all of them saints of_ slain by a fierce wild beast; and there's not a - ny re - ason,_ sea, in the house next door; they are saints of_ God, whe - ther

God, and I mean, God hel - ping, to be one too.
 no, not the least, why I should - n't be one too.
 rich or_ poor, and I mean to be one too.

This text was included in Lesbia Scott's Everyday Hymns for Little Children with her original words, music, and illustrations. A native of Britain, Scott was also the author of six published plays and enjoyed painting until her death in 1986.

This traditional All Saints Day hymn originally consisted of eleven stanzas written for the Sarum Hymnal (1869) and set to a tune by that name, Sarum. It has grown in popularity since it was later paired with the enduring Sine Nomine in The English Hymnal (1906).

Come, Let Us Join with Faithful Souls

383

William G. Tarrant, 1892; alt.

Rev. 5:11-14

1 Come, let us join with faith-ful souls our song of faith to raise;
2 Faith - ful are all who love the truth and per - fect truth pro - claim,
3 And faith-ful are the gen - tle hearts to whom the power is given
4 O God of hosts, our faith re - new, and grant us, in your grace,

One fam - i - ly in heart are we, and one the God we praise.
Who stead-fast stand at God's right hand and glo - ri - fy God's name.
Of ev - ery hearth to make a home, of ev - ery home a heaven.
To join the songs sung by the saints in ev - ery time and place.

A leader of the Unitarian Church in England, William Tarrant edited a Unitarian weekly and for thirty-seven years ministered to the Unitarian Christian Church in London. This hymn was one of many he wrote for use by that congregation.
